His extensive military training developed his lightning fast reflexes and his cunning ability to come out of nowhere. Many tales are told of competitors who drove head-on into turn barriers because they were watching out for him in their rear view mirror. Racers may not see Jackyl during a race, but they'll sure feel his presence.

COMBAT CARS

Character: Sadie Marks

Weapon: Glue Globbs

An expert at gluing competitors on the track, Sadie is intense and wild. Her car handles great where it really counts - in the turns. Her relentless nature is a result of many years spent as a pit crew grease monkey at the local race track. She realized her potential only after she hopped in a race car she was working on, joined the race in progress, and broke every track record. She really enjoys forcing other cars off the track and loves listening to their screeching tires and crunching fenders. Recently Sadie built her own racing machine and now often zooms by the competition.

COMBAT CARS

Character: Ray

Weapon: Hydro Boost

Ray has extra boosting power for the tracks. An ex-gang war hero with a fast car, his driving is as aggressive as his fist fighting. His hydro powered car and bad attitude make him an unrelenting and merciless driver. He's never out of a race in his mind; he once drove past the entire field of racers on the final lap! However, his temperament often gets him in trouble. A local television reporter once asked him if he was happy with his second place finish, and Ray was definitely not! He ended up blowing all his prize money on a new camera, a new microphone and lawyer's fees.

Character: Mekmac

Weapon: Anti-Auto Mines

Mekmac is a vintage bomb collector who picked up a deal on surplus army mines. He has great skill and drives a metal beast packed with speed. Mekmac's appearance leads most of his fans to believe he's a happy-go-lucky, hamburger eating, all around swell cyborg. His serious competitors know him differently; he constantly proves he is as ruthless and fast as anyone. Mekmac's weight and advanced age often draws teasing and taunting from younger drivers, but he soon gets a huge laugh watching their cars fall to pieces from his surplus mines.

COMBAT CARS

Character: Metro

Weapon: Power Shotgun

Metro, a cyborg battle unit built for Hyper Wars, rebelled to hit the hard road. He races a car he created - loaded with a power shotgun. Metro has no friends on the racing circuit. He speaks to no one, and his expression remains the same in victory or defeat. He considers himself superior to any human on or off the road. Drivers who see him in their rear view mirror usually swerve or skid due to the pinpoint accuracy of his 80mm power shotgun. Its blast brings opponents to a screeching halt. His car's great acceleration enables him to fly past the racers his powerful gun leaves behind.

Character: Growl

Weapon: Thick Smoke

An experienced 20 year racing veteran. His specially designed smoke weapon, developed on his home planet, leaves behind hacking and coughing opponents. Long ago, Growl manned a space junk transporter orbiting his home planet of Tordo. He spent most of his time floating through space, dreaming of high speed racing on the planet with the fastest racers in the galaxy, Earth. Fed up with collecting space trash, he set a course for the legendary planet. With an intimidating glare, an ear piercing growl, and the installation of his smoke weapon, Growl has been a force on the tracks for the past two decades. Although, to his frustration, his bad breath and foul odor make the victory podium a very lonely place.

Character: Big Bad Mama
Weapon: Hydro Boost

A tire squealing, hydro boosting, five hundred pound junk food junkie who gave up game shows for racing glory. Big Bad Mama is one tough lady. She is a determined competitor who uses her hydro boost to zoom past losers toward the nearest 24-hour diner. Her diet consists of candy, cupcakes, donuts, and raspberry smothered cheesecake. She claims this special diet gives her the energy to keep her foot pedal to the floor. For inspiration, she imagines that there's an "all you can eat" donut shop in the winner's circle. Racers don't want to come between her, the finish line, or the food.

Character: Andrew Alien
Weapon: Heat-Seeking Missile

Andrew Alien, a near genius, created the deadly MAD L500 heat missile for his Zephyr. Rivals will regret staying in his gun sights too long. Andrew is the most intelligent and influential being on his home planet, Costa. His importance to the people of his home planet makes it difficult for him to be away, so he commutes light years to Earth for each race. His incredibly high IQ makes it hard to communicate in a language that earthlings can understand, but he has no trouble communicating on the track. His car can accelerate and select its target with ease, so racers should get a big lead, or stay out of his way. Following one of his many victories, the crowd roared "Speech!" He muttered four words, "Don't call me Andy."
